

Forensic Economist

Associated Economic Consultants (2017) Ltd. is accepting applications for a forensic economist to work in our Vancouver office. As a forensic economist, you will analyze data, calculate economic damages and prepare reports. You will also testify in court as an expert witness.

Principal Duties

- * Review financial and employment-related documentation
- * Conduct economic and financial analysis
- * Interact with clients (law firms) and other team members
- * Prepare expert reports on economic damages in the areas of personal injury law and wrongful death claims
- * Testify in court
- * Perform statistical research projects, as required

Skills Required

- * Well-developed aptitude for quantitative analysis
- * Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- * Fluency in English
- * Ability to multitask and meet tight deadlines
- * Ability to work independently and with others
- * Proficient in Corel Suite and Microsoft Office, especially Quattro Pro and Excel
- * Willingness to testify in court
- * Ability to travel

Qualifications

- * Master's degree in economics
- * Completed coursework in labour economics
- * At least 3 years of work experience in the field of economics
- * Actuarial and/or accounting background is considered an asset
- * Programming capabilities in Quattro Pro and Excel are considered an asset
- * Court experience and/or expert certification is considered an asset

What We Have to Offer

- * Competitive total compensation package (salary and benefits)
- * Eligibility for performance bonuses
- * Career growth opportunities

Application Process

- * Please apply by e-mailing your résumé and any additional materials requested in the application process to curtis@aec-econ.com
- * Provide at least two work references
- * We sincerely thank all candidates for their interest, however, only those applicants selected for further consideration will be contacted